THE CONDEMNED SEVEN.

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO SAVE THEM FROM THE DEATH PENALTY.

Captain Black Goes to New York to Consult General Pryor as to the Best Method to be Pursued—An Interview in which he Refuses to State his Program.

New York, Sept. 24.—Capt. Black, the attorney in defense of the seven condemned Anarchists, now in prison at Chicago, arrived here last night to take counsel with Gen. Pryor as to the best method to be pursued in securing a new trial for the condemned men. George Schilling was the only agitator of any note who was on hand to greet the lawyer. It was hinted that this was in accordance with the advice of Capt. Black and the men who are to assist him in the delicate task in hand.

With the captain came Mrs. Black, who, by the way, has played no negative part in the defense of the Anarchists. Little Paul, their son, a clever, handsome featured lad, and a lady, traveling as companion to Mrs. Black, complete the party. While waiting for the carriage that was to take her to the hotel, she drew for the reporter a vivid picture of the state of things in the city which she had just left.

"The town is torn by a tornado of conflicting passions—hate, pity, rage, sorrow—each with tense violence struggling for mastery."

"God knows where it will end," she continued in a voice tremulous with emotion, with every line of her face marking the earnestness of her feelings. "A very panic has seized the community. Our lives, our homes are near to destruction. Men speak of the danger that overhangs us all in accents of fear and horror. Women turn pale and tremble at the very mention of the momentous crisis that is at hand. In the presence of our little ones we are silent of the dismal hour that threatens to darken the memory of their childhood days."

"We are dealing with men made desperate by weight of woe. They see their friends on the brink of an abyss over which wild, unreasoning passion works to hurl them to disgraceful death. Heaven help us if the worst comes. The story of their revenge will be written in solemn colors in the annals of the age. Frankly, we fear them."

Capt. Black confessed that his failure to obtain the record from the Illinois supreme court was a grievous disappointment to him. Still, if a writ of error is granted, the absence of that document will be of no moment.

"What are the grounds," the lawyer was asked, "on which you will base your motion for writ of error?"

"I must decline to answer that," he replied promptly.

He stated, though, that he had been scrupulously careful to note during the trial every minute instance in which the rights of individuals as granted by the constitution were at all disregarded, and from the manner of Capt. Black's speech it appeared that this struck the keynote of the course to be pursued by the Anarchist's lawyers.

"Is there not good reason," the reporter asked, "for the prevalent opinion that in case of a new trial these Haymarket prisoners will go scot free?"

"The Chicago press," the lawyer replied, non-committally, "have advanced that idea, and I know that Mr. Grinnell, the Illinois state's attorney, stated in his argument to the supreme court that if the decision of the lower court was reversed the case would never again come to trial. The reasons assigned for this were the impossibility of securing a jury, in the face of the wide celebrity of the case, and the insurmountable obstacles in the way of reproducing the testimony used in the first trial."

"Would a reversal in the case of one of the prisoners affect the decision against the others?"

"Certainly. Because the conviction was based on an alleged conspiracy. If one was wrongfully convicted, all suffered from the injunction."

Another point which he hinted might be used in the argument for a new trial was that the jury that convicted the Anarchists was not drawn impartially from all ranks in the community. "Of the 1,000 men examined for the jury," he said, "less than one hundred were drawn from the Fourteenth ward, where 140,000 working people lived."

Capt. Black evinced considerable feeling when questioned as to the right of the police to break up a meeting. "If the thing occurs in Mitchelltown, Ireland, public opinion seems to turn in our direction; if it occurs in Chicago it seems to take a different tack."

Gen. Pryor will meet Capt. Black, and the two lawyers will decide on their course of procedure. Capt. Black declined to say whether he had secured other counsel to assist in the case. It was plain, though, from his manner of reply, and from that of George Schilling, that such was the fact.

Capt. Black was at the office of Gen. Roger Pryor at 11 o'clock this morning, to present the case of the condemned Anarchists to the lawyer, with a view to carrying the case to the United States supreme court. Gen. Pryor had said that he would not commit himself to the management of the case, at least until he was made thoroughly acquainted with it. Capt. Black was not permitted to secure the court records, but he had made copious notes of the trial proceedings, and these he went over with the lawyer. As the carrying up the case will depend largely, if not entirely upon Gen. Pryor's decision, Capt. Black will doubtless make the best of all the points he can disclose. At 1:30 o'clock the men were still closeted. The consultation lasted until 1:45 o'clock when Capt. Black came out of the lawyer's sanctum his face was wreathed in smiles. He would only say, however: "I have won Gen. Pryor, having explained everything to his satisfaction and convinced him of the justice of our side."

General Pryor said: "I am convinced that the points taken by Captain Black are excellent and that an application for a writ of error will be granted. I do not see how the application can be refused, and we shall not lose a moment in carrying the case to Washington. I say 'we' for I am now connected with the case. I am confident that we shall obtain the writ in time to prevent the execution of the condemned men. In my judgment, formed from Captain Black's notes, the records show so many errors that no great exertion will be necessary for us to win. The unexpected may happen, of course, but I have no fears."

Mrs. Parsons Arrested. CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Mrs. A. R. Parsons, wife of the condemned Anarchist, has just been arrested and locked up by the police, for circulating the address written by her husband to the American people.

GRAND ARMY AT ST. LOUIS.

Extensive Preparations Being Made for the Reception of Visitors.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 24.—Preparations for the Grand Army encampment, which begins its annual session September 29, are well nigh complete. There will be miles upon miles of illuminations. Every large business house in the city is being heavily decorated under inspiration of a prize of $250 and honor for the best display in that line. All the public parks and gardens are white with tents, wherein 30,000 veterans will slumber and bivouac during their sojourn here. Decorations of post headquarters are very elaborate, especially those of Ransome and Hassendel. The beautiful badges for officers, delegates and local committeemen were finished yesterday, and are not only handsome, but decidedly expensive.

The headquarters are beginning to be crowded with incoming visitors, among them Jacob Scheider, of New York, who comes as avant courier of the boom for Gen. Slocum for commander-in-chief. The California department is now en route and will arrive Sunday morning. Gen. Fairchild has notified the committee that himself and National officers will arrive Monday night by special train, and the commander-in-chief has also given notice that he will go into camp with the boys.

Gen. Sherman will arrive soon and be given a reception Saturday night by Ransome post, at their headquarters in the old army building, Fourth street and Washington avenue. The new armory at Thirteenth and Pine streets, will be the headquarters of the California delegation.

The grand parade takes place on Tuesday, and arrangements have been made to move the splendid procession by telephone, for which an elaborate system of signals and a list of thirty operators have been provided. Considerable interest is manifested in the success of this scheme, but its projectors have great faith in its success. There will be a general reception at the chamber of commerce on Tuesday evening, and the hall of the exchange is now brilliant and beautiful with decorations.

Prefor Sherman.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 24.—Col. H. G. Otis, of the Times, telegraphs from Arizona that a canvass of the Grand Army delegates en route to St. Louis shows that Southern California companies unanimously prefer Gen. Sherman for commander-in-chief. Effort is making by this delegation to secure the vote of all the California delegations for Sherman.

Boodlers Making Restitution.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Elisha A. Robinson, the wholesale grocer, whose testimony was of great value to the state in the boodler cases, made restitution to Cook county yesterday by handing over the sum of $15,000. This sum, according to calculations which are satisfactory to the state's attorney, makes the county whole on account of commissions paid by him to the boodler ring and his own profit from short weights and measures on goods delivered at the insane asylum, infirmary and hospital. Several small contractors called on Grinnell yesterday and figured out what they will have to return.

Senator Hawley Engaged.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A special from Philadelphia to the World says: The announcement of the engagement of Senator Joseph R. Hawley and Miss Edith Horner was made to-day. Miss Horner has been for the past few years connected with the management of the nurses at Blackley almshouse. She began her labors here after careful training in England. She also cared for the sick and wounded during the Zulu and Egyptian wars.

Unruly Redskins Arrested.

FLORENCE, Ariz., Sept. 24.—A courier arrived here at midnight from Sheriff Fryer's posse at Dudleyville, and reported the arrest of Eskimizen and his entire band of Indians without any trouble. Wednesday forenoon. At the request of Lieut. Watson, of San Carlos agency, the examination of the prisoners will take place at Dudleyville. All fears of trouble are now allayed.

Not Worried in the Least.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A Philadelphia special says that James Hunter, who fled from that city last March after misappropriating over $200,000 of the funds of John and James Hunter, is in the City of Mexico. He is not at all worried, and is enjoying himself in travel.

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—Thousands of dollars were lost in State street yesterday on account of a mistake made in transmitting the dispatch about the government bond offer. The figures named as the maximum that would be accepted were given as $125,000, 000 instead of $14,000,000. Investors and speculators of all sorts hurried to the street with early orders to buy all the local specialties and everything else at big advances over Wednesday's figures. There was a wild scramble to fill orders in the first half hour, and everything went up with a hurrah. The correction did not come for nearly an hour after the stock exchange opened, and then those who had been deceived hastened to unload. Several local stocks went off suddenly two or three points, and there was a tremendous howl of disgust from those who got caught. The mistake is said to have occurred in transmitting the dispatch from New York to Boston.

DEADLY DYNAMITE GUN.

SECRETARY WHITNEY EXPRESSES HIS OPINION OF IT.

He is Enthusiastic in his Praise of It as a Coast Defender—No Fears at the Treasury Department of a Money Panic. Death of General Ricketts—Notes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Secretary Whitney being asked this morning by a United Press representative as to the dynamite gun experiment in New York bay Tuesday last, said: "The experiment was most successful. Seeing is believing, and I wished to see something actually done. I have been incredulous, but I confess that I was greatly impressed with the power of the explosion. The vessel was lifted up bodily, and then went out of sight instantly."

"The resistance of that target," said the secretary, "was evidently no measure of the power of the projectile. It demonstrated this—that they can lodge dynamite in destructive quantities a mile and a half off with considerable accuracy, and it is a matter of detail merely to increase the range of the gun and the quantity of the explosive, so as to render it capable of destroying the strongest iron clads. It avoids the present contest between torpedoes and machine guns, the method now employed for using high explosives is in torpedoes. Torpedoes are met by machine guns and steel nettings placed about ships, but this is a new method of attack. Taking its range and the line of flight of the projectile, it is difficult to say how it can be met. For coast defense it seems to me the most important arm yet invented. I have steadily insisted upon the idea that the company should have an opportunity to show what it could do, and I am gratified that this American invention has not had to go abroad for its first encouragement—it has had it from the navy department. Its usefulness on ships is yet to be established, but its importance generally in naval warfare as an arm cannot be overestimated."

No Fears of a Panic.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The news from New York was more reassuring yesterday afternoon, and Acting Secretary Thompson said he thought the danger of a panic had been averted for the present. Up to 3 o'clock only $634,700 of the four-and-a-half per cent. bonds had been offered on the terms proposed in the department's last circular. Between 3 and 4 o'clock offers came in rapidly, and when the department closed it accepted $2,500,000 of four per cent. bonds making a total of nearly three and one-half millions for the day. At this rate the limit of $14,000,000 fixed by the department will be taken. Acting Secretary Thompson expressed himself as satisfied with the showing. When asked what the department would do in the event of the stringency in the market continuing, he said it would be time enough to cross the bridge when they came to it.

Treasury officers are of the opinion that the danger is averted. The fact that the treasury has shown a disposition to come to the relief of the market when necessary has restored confidence. The president is in receipt of a good many letters from the prominent business men of New York on the financial situation.

Reception to Fred. Douglass.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—About 2,000 negroes attended a reception given to Fred. Douglass last night at the African Methodist Episcopal Metropolitan church, the largest colored church in the city. After the reception a banquet was given, at which speeches were made by Mr. Douglass, Rev. T. G. Stuart and others. The Rev. Mr. Stuart, in his speech, said that his ticket for 1888 was Robert T. Lincoln for president, and Fred. Douglass for vice president. The occasion of the demonstration was the return of Mr. Douglass from his recent trip to Europe.

General Ricketts Dead.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Gen. G. B. Ricketts, commander of the famous Ricketts battery, died yesterday at his home in this city, aged seventy-one. He graduated from West Point in 1839, served on the northern frontier during the border disturbances, later in the Mexican war, then in the Seminole war, afterwards in western Indian campaigns, and finally in the civil war, always taking a very active part.

A TEXAS CYCLONE.

One Visits Brownsville, Doing Considerable Damage.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Sept. 24.—A cyclone visited Brownsville Wednesday night, carrying destruction in its path. The rain accompanying the storm deluged the country for miles. The loss to property and crops is very great. Thus far no lives are reported lost. The village of Santa Cruz, opposite Brownsville, was entirely submerged for several hours. The Rio Grande rose rapidly and raged like a sea, the backwater overflowing many miles of fertile country. The wind reached a velocity of over eighty miles an hour, blowing a perfect hurricane for a couple of hours. The rainfall during the night, by actual measurement, reached ten inches.

The floods did almost as much damage as the wind. Hardly a tree is left standing in the vicinity of the city, and several hundred acres of valuable sugar cane were blown flat. The roof of the Masonic hall was carried away. Scanlon's large oil warehouse was demolished and many private residences were unroofed and the contents ruined by the heavy rain. Many Mexican families whose frail houses were toppled over were cared for by citizens and lodged in public buildings.

Cow Causes a Wreck.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 24.—Three box cars and an engine on the Halladysburg branch railroad were derailed near Stillers siding yesterday afternoon by striking two cows which were on the track. Howard Thomas, the engineer, was killed by a flying rail and C. W. Terry, the fireman, was badly hurt.

Governor's Respite.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 24.—Johnson, the condemned murderer of Samuel Sharpless, of Delaware county, has been respited by the governor until November 9.

TORTURE AND ROBBERY.

Thieves Enter an Aged Farmer's Residence and Force Him to Disgorge.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 24.—A robbery of the old-fashioned, sensational kind was committed Wednesday night in Parma Center, Cuyahoga county. An old farmer named Eyerdam lives with his wife on Center road, near the village. He is well-to-do, and a few days ago drew several hundred dollars from the bank. Wednesday night about 8 o'clock, while the old man and his wife were seated in their kitchen, they heard a knock at the door. A man outside asked for admittance, saying that he wanted to buy some cider. Eyerdam went to the door and opened it, when three men with blackened faces sprang into the room. They seized the old man and his wife and after throwing them roughly to the floor, gagged them with sticks and pinned their hands and feet with ropes. The fact that this couple were over sixty years of age seemed to have no effect upon the treatment given them by the ruffians. Eyerdam was rolled over on his face on the floor and one of the robbers sat on his back.

The thieves remained in the house an hour and during that time they turned things upside down. They tore up the beds, broke open drawers, and sought every place where they thought money could be found. After breaking open a bureau drawer they found $40 ash, which they took. They then appropriated a collection of rare and valuable coins, worth over $100, besides a number of papers, notes and books. A pocket book containing a considerable sum of money was in the pocket of an old pair of trousers thrown across a chair, but the robbers overlooked it. Before leaving the men took Mr. Eyerdam's shotgun, but they carried it no further than the road, it being found there early Thursday morning. Mrs. Eyerdam was unbound before they left the house, and after they were gone she released her husband. Neither was more than slightly injured, although thoroughly frightened. It began to rain, and as it is some distance to the nearest farm house Mr. Eyerdam did not give the alarm until early Thursday morning. The robbers were young men, and spoke in German.

THE NEWS FROM MEXICO.

Anti-Clerical League—Slain on Suspicion.

Big Strike Ended.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 24.—It is proposed to establish an Anti-Clerical league in the capital, to combat the priests and church party.

Thursday a force of officers went to the Jose Luis ranch, state of Zatecas, took out three men, Miguel Gonzales, Pedro Gabaa and Anastacio Lomas, and shot them. The first two were killed, but the latter was only wounded in the throat and was taken to the hospital at Zatecas. It is said the men were shot only on suspicion of evil doing.

The Central railroad replaced its striking engineers with new men from the United States. The men who went out on the strike numbered 185.

A mysterious crime was recently committed at La Luz mines near Santa Rita, Guanajuato. An old couple named Benigno Saldivar and Saturnina Sanchez kept a small grocery near the town; on the 18th it was observed that the place was shut up. The chief of police broke open the doors when the poor old people were found dead on the floor with skulls crushed. What makes the crime mysterious is that nothing was missing from the store, nor were the doors of the place broken or any evidence of a forcibly entrance having been made.

A Mammoth Salt Company.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24.—A mammoth salt company composed of all the large salt manufacturers in the United States is about to be formed. It will be known as the National Salt union, and will be headquarters for the salt supply of the whole country. Delegates from salt firms in Ohio, Michigan and New York, met in this city within the past week and made arrangements for a union, and another meeting will be held soon for organization and election of officers. The object of the union is mutual protection and to keep up the prices, so as to be able to compete with foreign manufacturers. The company will be composed of sixty-three companies in all, eleven in the Pittsburgh salt company, nine in New York, thirty in Michigan and thirteen in Ohio. An office will probably be located in Pittsburgh.

Embarking in Business.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24.—George Westinghouse has bought 250 acres of land between Brinton and Wall's stations on the Pennsylvania railroad, paying therefor $1,500,000. The owners of neighboring property have been told that it is Mr. Westinghouse's intention to erect a monster plate glass factory. He has for some time expressed a desire to enter this business, and it was also his ambition to erect the largest steel rail and general steel plant in the world, with a capital of $5,000,000. It is said that Superintendent Robert Pitcairn, of the Pennsylvania road, has resigned to enter these schemes with Mr. Westinghouse.

A Horrible Uxoricide.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 24.—Thomas McKenna, a laboring man sixty-seven years of age, brutally murdered his wife this morning at their home in McKeesport, Pa. She was sleeping at the time. He first struck her on the head with an ax and then buried a knife in her heart. After his deed he said he had been contemplating the deed for years, but had refrained until his children had reached an age when they could care for themselves. He claimed that she was unfaithful to him.

Cutting Down Expenses.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 24.—There has been sent from Vice President Spencer's office a circular to the heads of the various departments in the Baltimore & Ohio Central building, calling for a reduction in expenses compatible with the interests of the company and good service. It is also learned that changes are to be made in the telegraph department. High priced men will either suffer a cut in salary or be substituted by cheaper men.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Sept. 24.—Edward Hanlan, the oarsman, has arrived here. His passage was exceedingly rough and boisterous and he has suffered considerably from sea-sickness. He looks very thin and worn. His arrival was without demonstration of any kind.

NATURAL GAS WELLS.

Trouble Between the Company and the Contractor not yet Settled.

A meeting of the Directors of the Maysville Natural Gas Company was held last evening at the office of the County Clerk. The principal business considered at the meeting was the troubles between the company and R. W. Evans, contractor, over the sinking of the well in the East End and the pay for same.

The contract with Mr. Evans required him to sink two wells. The first was to be 1,200 feet deep and he was to be paid $2,500 for sinking it. The second was to be of the same depth, but the pay for drilling the last one was to be only $1,800. The drilling was required to be done in a good, workmanlike manner.

The first well was started and Mr.
Evans was paid $1,500 of the $2,500 which the contract called for. The balance, $1,000, was not to be paid until the well was finished. Mr. Evans met with more difficulties than he expected. Considerable trouble and expense was incurred before a depth of 1,000 feet was reached, caused by his having to case off small veins of gas and water. At about that depth a big vein of salt water was struck.
The company served notice on the contractor not to do any more drilling until fresh casing was put in to shut off the water. Mr. Evans paid no attention to this notice, but had the workmen to drill the last two hundred feet through this water. He now asks the company to pay him the rest of his money, $1,000, but this the Directors refused to do.

At the meeting last evening, it was finally decided to release Mr. Evans from further performance of his contract, provided he would allow the company the use of the machinery now at the well for the purpose of completing the well in workmanlike manner, and for sinking the second well—the machinery to be return-

Augusta Physicians Puzzled.

A special from Augusta says a most remarkable death, that has puzzled the doctors, occurred near that city last Thursday evening. Several months ago, William Dugan, a farmer about thirty years old, had a spell of sickness, from which he seemed to recover, but only to be attacked with a malady that covered his body with boils. These, in time, began to disappear, but only to give place to a most remarkable skin eruption. All over his body lumps began to show themselves like little marbles under the skin.
These grew in size, and one of them at last became so large it touched a vital part, causing instant death. The doctors say it was something new to medical science, and the case attracted great attention.

Plain Talk From a Bishop.

At the annual conference of the African
M. E. Church of Kentucky at Louisville this week, some of the preachers received a good scoring for failing to pay their debts. Bishop Miles, who presided, is reported as saying: "I have received complaints against a great many of you preachers who do not pay your debts. You are liable to be arrested, and I fear I will have to call a private session to consider the matter. If you don't receive enough money for preaching, you had better quit it and go to work at something where you will make more money. You need not say a word," said he, as the preachers looked guilty at each other; "I know you, and I'll just give you until next Friday to get square with your creditors. I hope you'll do this because I don't want to expose you, but if you don't come up and do right the public will know it, and you will be left without an appointment."

The Times remarks that "at the conclusion of this admonition there was a painful silence, and many a pious-looking elder looked sorely troubled."

MRS. LOUISA M. LURLEY, wife of W. A.
P. Lurley, formerly of this city, now of Covington, has bought W. D. Frazee's house at Dover, for $1,250.

Never Before

did we start a season's business with the rush we did this Fall's trade, and if better goods for less money than can be found in any other house in the State will help to continue the rush, we will keep it up at a lively gait. Our Tailor-made Clothing has gained such an enviable reputation that we hardly need call attention to them. Everybody wears them; they advertise themselves. For this season we have made up perfect gems in the way of Cheviot and Scotch Suitings. We have them in Stripes, neat Checks and Plain Mixtures. The very thing for a nice, genteel Fall and Winter Suit. In WORSTED SACK, CUTAWAY and PRINCE ALBERT SUITS, we show a vast variety, many of them Silk and Satin-lined; and by the way, we sell these elaborately trimmed Suits as cheap as you pay for ordinary trimmed goods elsewhere. For the little ones and further-along youngsters we have thousands of nice, nobby things, and the prices will please the parents.

In Gent's Furnishing Goods, such as fine Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery, Hats, Scarfs, &c., we are, as always, Headquarters. In our Tailoring Department we have already had to hang up our sign, "standing room only." The rush has been unprecedented, but is it a wonder?
Look at the work we turn out; it explains itself. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO.,

"At one time last week there were twenty-six kegs of beer on tap in Georquestion. We merely mention this in connection with the statement that pro-

PRINCE BISMARCK'S DAY.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ASSUMPTION TO OFFICE.

A Quarter of a Century in the Office of Prussian Foreign Ministry—An Ovation to Patriot O'Brien—Latest News from Stanley—Other Foreign Dispatches.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—Prince Bismarck celebrated to-day the twenty-fifth anniversary of his assumption of the office of Prussian foreign minister. On October 8, just a quarter of a century ago, this renowned statesman and diplomat was first entrusted with the responsible office of prime minister. The commemorative festival which was inaugurated to-day is for the purpose of recalling both these important political events in the history of the empire his services have done so much to develop and consolidate.

Baron Von Lut, Bavarian prime minister, and Baron Von Crailsheim, Bavarian foreign minister, have paid a visit to the prince. Congratulatory dispatches and communications have been received from most of the leading statesmen of Europe, and not a few with royal signatures attached. The famous war prince wears his advancing age well and enters heartily into the festivities of the occasion. Among the later congratulatory telegrams by the premier are several from the United States, not only from Washington, but from leading German-Americans throughout the country.

Ovation to Patriot O'Brien.

CORK, Sept. 24.—Mr. William O'Brien, who is charged by the government with sedition under the coercion act was taken to-day from the Cork jail to Mitchellstown, where the alleged seditious language was used, to stand trial before the court there. As he left the city under guard of a detachment of hussars and police he was loudly cheered.

Upon their arrival at Mitchellstown Mr. O'Brien was received with tremendous cheering by a large crowd which had gathered to welcome him. The crowd manifested great excitement, but there were no indications of disorder. Mr. O'Brien was immediately conveyed by his guards to the court room. Many English ladies were present to witness the trial, and Mr. O'Brien was the recipient of bouquets from a number of them.

Religious Feeling Will Crop Out.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—During the meeting of the National League in Cork last evening a crowd which had gathered outside the building in which the meeting was held, made an attack upon the rooms of the Protestant Young Men's association. The police charged the crowd, but the mob continually gained fresh accessions and resisted, and a melee occurred, the police using their batons and the crowd using stones. The conflict continued until Mr. Tanner, M. P., who was present at the league meeting, came out and implored the crowd to desist. After this the police made another charge and dispersed the crowd. Several constables were cut with stones.

Latest From Stanley.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—A letter has been received from Henry M. Stanley, dated June 23. He says that at Yamoubo there were five hundred slave traders, half of whom refused to pay allegiance to Tippoo Tib, and the latter, reluctant to fight with old friends, asked the assistance of the state troops to uphold his authority as governor of the country. Stanley declares that he is confident that Tippoo Tib will prove himself worthy of the trust reposed in him.

Against Russia.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The Temps says it has learned that Count Kalnoky obtained from Prince Bismarck assurance that Germany will prevent any military action by Russia in Bulgaria.

A FIRE BALL STORY.

Strange Discoveries Made After the Explosion of a Gas Well.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 24.—The mystery of the recent oil well fire in Wood county is made public to-day, but is still unexplained. At the time of the explosion at the Parker oil well, the largest well in the world, blowing when first shot 10,000 barrels in a day, a bright blue flame and a column of white smoke shot up into the air hundreds of feet. This was quickly followed by a rumbling noise and a shower of fire-balls.

When the burned oil fields were examined this morning, the fire being extinguished, a large number of small black stones about the size and shape of hens' eggs were found scattered over the entire territory. The stones were of a very light weight and of a substance totally unknown to the drillers. The exterior closely resembled enamel and was completely covered with strange letters and characters closely resembling the ancient Greek and Sanskrit. They will be sent to the Smithsonian institution for examination, as all men are completely puzzled by the strange appearance of the mysterious stones. It is supposed that they were forced up from the Trenton limestone at the time of the explosion, but it is not believed that the shower of stones left had any connection with the explosion at the well.

A Town Destroyed by Fire.

GAVERHURST, Ont., Sept. 24.—This town is practically in ashes. A fire broke out in Mowrey's foundry at the north end of the town at 1 o'clock this morning and aided by a strong north wind swept down Main street destroying everything in its path. Not a business place is left standing. Nine blocks are completely cleaned of buildings. The English church and school house were also burned. The loss is about $150,000 with little insurance. Very few goods were saved and no provisions remain for the homeless people.

Float Fishing a Hollow Mockery.

Float fishing, the old fashioned country sort of angling, is now being reduced to a hollow mockery by the aid of electricity. "An arrangement has been devised," says The Electrician, "by which a pull on the line closes the circuit of a tiny battery carried in the base of the reel, and this is made either to sound an alarm or to gently tickle the hand of the fisherman as he grasps the butt. Nothing now but the sportsman from going to sleep." Float fishing is evidently the thing for people who like to carry along a big can of "bait."—New York Tribune.

A shoemaker in Bingen has invented a water velocipede, with which he has made successful trial trips.

Exciting Election.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 24.—Never in the history of Davidson county was there so much interest taken in an election as was taken in Thursday's election for the subscription of $500,000 by Davidson county to the Midland railway which would, had they won the fight, have passed through Nashville and one hundred miles of the county. Three-fourths majority being required it was defeated. The majority, however, will not be over 500 out of about 18,000 votes polled. Another election will probably be held in thirty days. The Louisville & Nashville railroad control all the lines that enter this city and they consequently fought the question very hard. The Midland people claim bribery against the Louisville & Nashville road and a lively time is expected during the coming campaign.

A Child's Horrible Death.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 24.—A little son of Leander Hill, who lives south of Covington, Tenn., went to his father's gin Wednesday, and seeing that the cotton press was full of the fleecy staple, the child lay down and went to sleep. Operations were resumed about the gin and the negroes filled the press with lint to complete the bale. The terrific pressure of the following block was brought down upon the loose cotton, and when the bale was rolled up from the press bound with the iron ties the life blood of the child oozed slowly through the fibre. This excited the curiosity of the men and the bale was torn open. To the horror and unspeakable grief of Mr. Hill, he found the body of his son crushed into a jelly. If the little fellow uttered any cries of distress they were not heard.

An Octogenarian's Long Trip.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Horace Allen, aged eighty-three years, a grand-nephew of Ethan Allen, of revolutionary fame, arrived in Albany to-day, having pushed a wheelbarrow from his home in Delaware, O., a distance of 675 miles. He started on his long tramp on June 18, and rode only twenty-eight miles of the whole distance. He averaged about nine miles a day, and reached as high as fifteen. The old man is wonderfully vigorous for his years. At one time he was worth several hundred thousand dollars, but lost all in the panic of 1873. He took to wheelbarrowing to cure his rheumatism, and declares that he has succeeded. Tomorrow he will push on to the Green Mountain state, where he was born. He expects to go as far east as Boston.

Big Day in Denver.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 24.—There was a fine parade of the New York veteran firemen yesterday morning, and in the afternoon the grand parade of the Sovereign Lodge, Odd Fellows, took place. This was the most imposing affair of the kind ever seen here. Lieut. Gen John C. Underwood commanded, escorted by his special staff officers and by unattached mounted officers under Brig. Gen Foster, of Connecticut, Gen. C. A. Cushman, of Massachusetts, and other regular officers.

Seventeen Years for Selling Liquor.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 24.—J. A. Stewart, of this city, was yesterday sentenced to seventeen years and four months in the county jail and fined $20,800 with costs of prosecution for the violation of the prohibition law. He was a clerk in the west end drug store, and pleaded guilty to an indictment containing 2,080 counts, at the same time as did Herman, the proprietor of the place. The latter cannot be found.

World's Championship Series.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 24.—Late yesterday afternoon a compromise was made between the Detroit players and directors, whereby the players will receive $500 if they win the world's championship and $400 if they lose. A series of fifteen games will be played, including one each in Detroit, St. Louis, Brooklyn and Boston. Negotiations are pending with other cities for the remainder of the games, but as yet no definite arrangements have been made.

Texas Fever in Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 24.—Ten out of a herd of twenty western bulls, on Horace Brothers' place at Warehouse Point, have died of Texas fever. The herd was bought at Albany about ten days ago. The state commissioners on cattle diseases will attend to the case.

Christian Workers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The morning hours of the third day's session of the convention of Christian Workers was consumed by delegates in explaining the systems of their various charitable institutions and the reading of papers relating thereto.

Fell From a Train and Killed.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 24.—Frederick W. Hendricks, a brakeman on the South Carolina railroad, fell headlong from the top of a car Thursday morning, his head striking the corner of a tie, from the effects of which he died.

In Favor of the Plaintiff.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 24.—In the suit of Ross & Sanford against Henry A. Ramsey & Son, involving the building of a bridge for the Annapolis & Short Line Railroad company, to-day gave the plaintiffs $7,765.45 damages.

A Town Almost Destroyed.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 24.—Fire broke out in a bakery in Sanford yesterday morning at 1 o'clock and destroyed almost the entire business portion of the town. The damage is estimated at $300,000, with very little insurance.

E. B. Washburne Better.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Hon. E. B. Washburne, who was lying in a critical condition at the residence of his son in this city Wednesday evening, from an attack of congestion of the brain, is reported considerably better.

Labor Party to Disband.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Star says that George D. Lennon, secretary of the state committee of the Union Labor party, has said that the committee would meet in a few days and disband the party in this state for the present.

Whippers Indicted.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 24.—The United States grand jury yesterday returned indictments against forty-six persons, of which twenty-six are for whipping and intimidating homesteaders on government lands.

A Dynamite Crank.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Thomas J. Mooney, the dynamite crank, was arraigned before Judge Cowing yesterday. His counsel entered a plea of not guilty. It is believed that Mooney will be declared insane.
